

For Immediate Release ...

Lee Container To Open a Second Manufacturing Facility in Texas

Homerville, Georgia, November 12, 2004 – On October 26, 2004 Robert Varnedoe, VP of Sales for Lee Container, joined Governor Rick Perry of Texas in a press conference to announce the opening of a second manufacturing facility for Lee Container in Nacogdoches, Texas. “Lee Container is opening the new manufacturing facility in Texas to better serve existing and prospective customers in the region” according to Robert Varnedoe. Lee Container anticipates being in production by the third quarter 2005.

Robert Varnedoe (at podium) is joined (left to right) by Russell Spivey, Mayor Bob Dunn and Governor Rick Perry.